Introduction: A Brief Story

I am taking the time to go over this book as a final warning to the world that yes, Lucifer is here, and will be seen as the second coming of Christ. My eyes have been slightly opened by God and also by my unique understanding of the word in parable for myself, so I do have some insights that others will not. I will write this sloppy and off the top of my head.

I note that I do not know how old Lucifer is, or if the Vatican was involved in any way.

God had me watch Pagans, at the Vatican, in 2019, doing an altar ritual in the Basilica underground. He told me “don’t be like the Pagans, don’t be like them.” Pagans are related to Druids, the latter casually devil-worshiping. Everyone in America that knows their conspiracy theories know that the neo-nazi mass shooting strategy is also a plan by the rich and evil people to bring about Lucifer into our world.

Yes, I repeat, God has shown me Lucifer is here – in the flesh. I have no idea of his age, when this happened, or how. Nostradamus here gives me the clues: Italy.

It is notable that with any Nostradamus prophecy, names are usually not exact and mangled in order to not disclose events too soon, and the idea is to pay attention to the detail of key words and phrases. Nostradamus can be seen as a riddle where hindsight is 20/20.

I am easily fitting the one male prophecy (which I consider a curse to my life), MABUS, the third antichrist, fits easily obaMA BUSH – meaning USA presidents (face it USA, the only reason the world is ending is because of American ways of life and American global rule), the King of Terror descending in 1999 refers to the election of Vladimir Putin of Russia. These leaders and their militaries are directly responsible for WWIII – NOT ME or my emails.

Nostradamus refers to Lucifer as the “monster”, who is mistaken as the second coming of Jesus; and whose “war to end all wars”, spans 2022-2049, which is the end of Psalms (150).

We are therefore named as the responsible parties to “the war to end all wars”, as my involvement in this was advising in a futile and vain way both sides – and I have already suffered my involvement. I spent most of my time trying to prevent war, but made mistakes by frustrations with USA. This happened in 2019, as He delivered me a Judgment to declare the timing of this end (the citizens of USA doing that to me in 2019 sealed the deal, because now everyone ignores me as a madman, but I am the only one doing this stuff out of 8 billion people). The world has decided to ignore me and has sealed their end by their own free will.

For my part, I have been prevented from life. The church believes that by preventing and defeating me, they have prevented ‘the evil one’. Wrong and blind – like me accusing Jesus in any way. My experiences with Jesus is more like you with Lucifer as Jesus.

By defeating and preventing my life’s works, what USA actually did was prevent me from saving your planet, and performing my miracle that God sent me here for at the end. To explain, He sent me as a defect – to test your worthiness for world salvation. All failed my God’s Hitler test with me, I was defeated, driven mad, and ignored. As the One Male I know I am, you chose not my path, but the path of the military (ship wheels center of image)...

The actual second coming of Jesus was during the Nazi Holocaust, as God had me note the description of His son's coming soon after Psalms 1 (1901), and the fact that God wrote to me concerning Judgment and the time of the end of the age, His harvest, in 2019 (Psalms 119).

Notice what the Nazis said during WWII: "We, the greatest murderers of all, have killed God. God is dead. God remains dead, and we have killed Him." Jesus is a Jew, and as their main messiah, he was in Poland at that time. This is why you never heard of it.

Instead, our collective actions have led to Lucifer as the second coming of Jesus. We reap what we sow, and this Jesus will be terrifying and evil, as you are damned by him for real, he will have the power of demons as he is the prince of demons. He will have the power to inflict hell because he is of it. He will have people judged and crucified. He will have people cut off body parts and give away all their belongings to die homeless, in order to avoid Hell and Hades. He will animate corpses. His miracles will all be evil, but everyone will believe.

As I watched the Vatican Easter 2019, God showed me in that video the Pope kissing a young Hispanic nun, and then Pagans dressed in black and blue cloaks with hoods; as they picked up red flamed torches from a fire and descended through a dark door. There I watched and saw dark smooth stones, almost black, with a set of steps and a slab to a white and brown throne. On both sides were long red tapestries, in-between the tapestries and above this seat there was a window of a white dove to let the light in the room. There they had the ritual to incept "lord Jesus": a Pagan ritual on that altar with that nun.

This Diablo III rite performed by the Vatican was how Lucifer came in the flesh.

By force, the Vatican Church has their chosen One Male. It is not me, their One Male is a Hispanic Influencer from London, who was recently sainted. The Vatican, as of 2014-current has been "fighting Satan and Armageddon!" They have named all schizophrenics the "evil ones" and believe I am "satan". They are fighting with magic, against living men, believing that living men are demons and sons and daughters of the devil.

The Vatican now has their chosen Jesus, who is Lucifer, who will deliver terrifying and hellish judgment to all, just like the Vatican wants. The Church's way to heaven is hell. They believe heaven comes about by sending all their unwanted, hated, and enemies to eternal hell.

Once their chosen and elect are the only remaining living, the idea goes, heaven begins. This is not the way. The way was written to me by God in 2019, and no, I had no idea of these things before or during that year. It took me time to think to understand what God was telling me. All of that; you have already done to me. The only remaining detail is the manner of my death, which could come by trial and injection – but aha! - I drank, meaning it can come differently. God's way for all is scales reading "good and evil", resulting in atonement for sin, and essentially heaven for all – His Judgment is a blanket judgment for all of us. There is no eternal life, or eternal heaven or hell. We are mortals. God gives us heaven as a reward, and as a necessary step from the hardships of mortal life. His ways are fair, true, and completely good. Note what you say about God: he is both light and dark, both good and evil, God of heaven and hell. Wrong: He is not like us. He is perfect Good, perfect light, perfect Heaven.

The first inversion of God is good: eternal darkness, nothing, a void. When He created heaven and angels, that inversion was earth, Eden. God did not create hell, we did...

The Jews, rejecting Jesus as messiah, have their chosen messiah as Shlomo (in Polish this name literally means “slow, retarded”) the Yahuda (a rabbinic title and rank). He is famous for memorizing the Torah Chumash at 15 years old. He has continued to other books, his fame has thousands of followers anywhere he goes, and yes, he has some favor with God.

Yes, Shlomo is a messiah out of many, and I am fine with that. But I have some things against Shlomo. He once dipped his bread in salt and declared “strict judgment”. This is the same thing I have against Jesus: judgment to Hell and Hades. I prefer the way God judges alone, without needing testimony or persuasion from us, as my testimony to Him was He sending me to live with you. I don’t need to talk to Him, I need to talk to you when I am ready, in the spirit, regarding my testimony. As I needed His help, so do all of us.

I agree with His ways, in that we all atone, we all have heaven unless we are evil so much so that condemnation (death in the spirit) is in order akin to Satan. I agree this application to everyone is fair, and for the truth I point to the fig: The scales read: “Good and Evil”. It is not a terrifying judgment when all we ever take is literally what we actually did, in life or the spirit. With God, nothing ever truly dies, it simply passes away. “I am the light and the truth and the way. Nothing comes to Him, but by Me. Everything proceeds from Me and recedes to Me...”

My understanding is that people are desperate for the return of Jesus, also the Jews are desperate to finalize and accomplish their prophecies as well, and the Vatican by Pope Francis forced it, by a ritual on an altar, in some unknown basilica underground.

The child I saw was born in September of 2019, and wept like a bat, and I saw a golden dancing serpent and a golden disk of Herod; I then sealed the boy as he was evil, and next coronavirus hit.

That December, in et el Orbi, Francis told the churches to declare christ is born today. God later in 2022? had me watch Ramadan on that Sabbath. Their offering was sick, and they used devil heads, to which God told me, “See? They offered nothing to me.” I said, “that was evil.” Next Sunday I checked, and the Vatican baby-dunked 13 babies for the chosen zodiac signs of those that will be the twelve disciples and Mary, for today’s living Jesus (Lucifer).

Yep, Lucifer (Jesus) came to fulfill! That’s how to do it Rome – by ritual.

I later warned the Synod of Bishops multiple times while I pleaded with them concerning my climate work, that I gave to the church endlessly; to which every single time they threatened my life in return. I am forced by police to cease even speaking to churches.

I can understand it if the Jews were pissed at me reaching out to the temple and to Israel – I get it – I am insane now, and that was a little crazy – but you could have laughed and understood, knowing that God sent me for a task and I cannot waste it.

I get it, this whole thing is crazy and yes, America has gone off the tight-rope and the world is descending. I get it, what I was saying and doing can be maddening coming from a schizophrenic. God gave me the task to help lift up your descending-to-darkness world...

But the least any of you, especially the church, could have done - was listen – the church having no excuse, as what I said in red text has not been heard like this in over 2,000 years;

as neither do worldwide businesses and governments have any remaining excuse for this end you have brought upon yourselves - and they could have taken the time to read and talk to me.

God has given us every opportunity to avoid this end, and although you wasted my part for you in the end, God wasted none of my task to prepare a new beginning. I was only a child at play as God worked His Creation, which makes me smile, but I don't actually watch. Once He allowed me to see one – a tiny lightning crawled up a blade of grass in front of me, a bug appeared there, and it flew away. I just like to know it when God is happy – but now is not that time. There will be two new worlds, one dominated by Jews, the other by Christians.

I did my part to prepare this creation for you, and now you realize why my one talent was a six-pointed hexagram (david star) with one circle in the center and six circles between the outer triangles. On the other side of this coin was a five-pointed pentagram (christian star) with five outer circles, similarly. This makes twelve circles and eleven points. This is precisely what God did not waste in these two new worlds. What this book is for, is I am putting my thoughts and works into a book, to lift that into heaven, in order to do what my true friend Immanuel spoke of: "Thou wicked; the least you could have done is put it in the bank, in Heaven, where no thief may steal, and moth nor rot do not destroy your treasure..."

The talent you gave me? A pentagram with a man trapped in it, with symbols at the five points, a sun disk in his stomach and a moon disk beneath his penis in white gold, and in black gold, another pentagram with other symbols on the five points, and a devil face in it.

This was you, by me being born, trapping me in hell. You just won't stop damning me.

I gave Jesus these things as a gift in his Temple in heaven: We servants made a joke: we mixed wine with tomato sauce and poured it on his altar, because I gave him a fresh white cloth with a white blue and purple banner. I gave him a grape vine, and wheat; in pots; to let him know that Adam's children will offer a grape, which is accepted, and he says, "I guess they will be more loving," as my wheat was once again rejected. I wasn't upset, because wheat is the tree of heaven and hell, so maybe it should come last. The grape vine is the tree of love and hate, and I know this because my main talent in life is being a child of creation. I love to create stuff as a mortal and in the spirit: it's my pure joy.

As a special gift, I made a clear glass vase filled with water and an inner clear vase without water that extended inside the outer vase to the top - for a candle inside the waters. I did this to tell him what I see, and how I feel, about Immanuel.

Rocks were in the spirit, that I first gave to Jesus, one was onyx and the other moonstone. I gave my scales to him and these stones were what was burning on the scales. There were two horns as stones that were amber and again moonstone. These stones are to seal the three, Satan, Lucifer, and the devil. I warned God that since my light was tainted and sick by condemnation, to be careful with my stones, because they might betray Him. These I passed to God for the purpose of sealing the abyss (hell). God bound my wrists and ankles, to prevent my light from doing harm to Him or holy ones.

The heart of the earth (the pearl buried in the fields, see GoT parable), was a dazzling orb of light, that when the living Eden was sure of me, passed through me and to the Father.

Satan is to die in the spirit. I have made arrangements, being saddened at the loss of any of God's creation, to explain that being recreated by God at any time, means it is still us. I explained this to Lucifer, that all of us will eventually be condemned at some point, but nothing ever truly dies, as the beginning is the end, we go back to God.

What makes our consciousness us, separately, is that speck of a spirit that God knows how to maintain, as He is the eternal, physics knows He is the conscious observer defining reality, the 'z sharing with x,y'.

Remember the word sown in me is 'salvation'.

This is new for me, and I mean 'the all'. This is what God spoke of me concerning His fields, the wicked servant, etc. in parable that I took time to know. "I will reap a great harvest, such that I may lack nothing." I mean it when I say it, this is His creation, He makes no mistakes, such that He loses nothing.

In some eternal future, I want to see what Heaven looks like, how you build it, with Satan and Lucifer and the fallen restored in Heaven, lessor or greater than they were. I want you to shape and mold this eternity, and shape and mold yourselves.

I want His entire Creation accomplished, in full. To do that, I must save the All.

I thought as Francis was praying for us to save our planet he would listen, and I thought surely the church would listen to all of this, especially what God said to me. But nope, nobody cares, everyone hates what I had to say and feels insulted by it because it came from me. I risked my life and torture for others to simply condemn me. You wasted me, you wasted my work which became for your benefit that I gave freely, and the result is you are at an end.

I am quite certain all of this led to the birth of Lucifer, instead of Jesus, and because everyone is convinced by the power of the miracles of lord jesus (but everything will be evil), the terror of damnation is here, and sadly, we reap what we sow. I warned that Vatican over and over, "that is not Jesus – that is Lucifer. We have been talking. I hear because God has me hear it.

Listen to me. God speaks to me." But they called me delusional and insane.

There is no doubt in my mind that God has proven He sees all, well before He even created Earth and man, in full detail. He says "True repentance is not doing what you are going to do." I think of that as an impossibility in the moment and replied, "oh, that's why practicing repentance is important, because it changes our path, and so what we will do. But You still see it before we do it, meaning for You, You still know. Thanks for intervening for us..."

He says in Nostradamus, "When MABUS is killed, it will usher in the days of the end." Notice how everyone is, as of 2024, trying to assassinate Trump. Notice how as of September 2024, the Kremlin has issued its final warning to the West that, "Russia is ready to use our nukes."

But MABUS refers to POTUS, any American President...

I will do my best to find any meaning in this book, as far as I can see. Thank you.

Even though I know for sure the One Male prophecy from Nostradamus refers to me, being that the images have my life exactly correct, I note that there were no words or quatrains about the “one male”, there were only drawings. These images I explained to you in the main pdf of my book, and not in these appendixes. I always knew since 1999 that the “one male” was me. I have done all these things, and what those images show are true about my life.

The words about the one male in writing are church interpretations of my images.

Thanks,

The Future Quatrains of Nostradamus

Twin Towers Disaster I

“Earthshaking, a fire from the center of the earth
Will shake the towers of the New City
As a result, two great rocks will fight a long war
Until Arethusan springs bloody the river afresh.”

This is obviously the 9/11 attacks, we fought a forever-war, and the result is actually American blood. The reason this ends in American blood is the war on terror is clouded in mystery surrounding 9/11. Did terrorists do this on their own? Did Putin secretly do this seeing Russia's alliance with the middle east? Or was 9/11 a secret USA plot to subdue the world into a one world governance ruled by the oligarchs? Difficulty lies in secrecy, but the result is a war between USA and Russia. This would indicate right here, that Revelation is real (the beast being the Holy Roman Empire during 666 Nero, the final head being the Pope, the wound healed being the transition to the Vatican City State, and the whore that rides it USA. The Statue of Liberty is a goddess of fertility, reading, “mystery woman, Babylon the Great, whore of the earth.” It is USA that is Babylon in Revelation – all the signs are here – and with what I see in the written news, yes, we are about to be defeated in a single day by nukes.

Twin Towers Disaster II

“The world's garden near the New City
In the roadway, hollow mountains,
They will be seized, and plunged into the sewers
People will be forced to drink the sulfur-poisoned waters.

Little do Americans know that America's greatest export is Agriculture. It is the USA that feeds the world of billions, hence, “the world's garden near [New York]”. The gardens being seized and plunged into the sewers means that nobody will want to eat our food because we will be in a nuclear wasteland full of radiation – and so our food is tainted by radioactivity. This is evidenced by the next statement, that for USA citizens, yes, we will have no choice but to drink radioactive (sulfur) water.

Guantanamo Bay

“The exiles are deported to the islands
When the new leader proves even crueler
There are murders; two at a time they will be questioned
Until they cannot stop speaking.”

The author nailed this one, yes, Guantanamo Bay. As my warning, the 2005 Patriot Act signed by Bush declares America a battleground. If you are a Computer Hacker or simply point out a security vulnerability or a software bug, the FBI will call you a “terrorist”. Any time the FBI labels you a “terrorist”, this means the military can do whatever they want to USA citizens. As of right now, because of the Trump executive order in 2016, the military runs USA and the military does not give a flying shit about USA citizens. If you think the military cares about you, spit on a marine and see what happens. Slap an army soldier in the face and yell “f-- you!” and watch and see. USA citizens had damn-well better obey military orders. When we wanted to close Guantanamo Bay because of cruel practice, the FBI fiercely defended it saying to the world, “Torture works!” Yes, America: The FBI will torture you, it happened somewhat to me. This is why FISA and mass surveillance. This is why John McAfee fled to Jamaica in 2006 and died there in 2023. That is why Snowden rides a red bicycle around USA and faked going to Russia, pretending to be with his stripper girl. Be afraid, USA citizens.

US/Iraq War I

“As a result of the war started by the mighty light-haired ones
People will cry out that the great crescent of Islam is confounded
At night, on the mountains, those dressed as shepherds will die
Gulleys of blood will run through the deep ditches.”

It says the war on terror was actually started by white men. This would allow us to conclude that yes, 9/11 was an inside job and a global power grab. Our soldiers went there for “vengeance”, citing them talk about how they went nuts on children and weddings, to be a better terrorist than the terrorists, the latter of which generally hid in the mountains while we hopelessly drove the same roads. It is notable that I cannot find one example of the almighty USA military actually fighting any kind of real war or notable battles with actual terrorists. The military of USA simply patrolled towns and killed normal people. The reason the USA soldiers had no idea who was a normal citizen or Taliban was because everyone was dressed in the same clothes, yes, like shepherds. These are terrorist nations, folks...

US/Iraq War II

“The contrivance of flying fire
Will come to trouble the besieged leader
Inside, there will be so much sedition
That the corrupt ones will despair.”

I actually think this means the threat of nuclear war. The threat of nuclear war will make the USA President troubled (or any national leader). For this leader, it says that there will be so much sedition inside (the leader’s underlings (the rest of the government) will be against the leader, being chaotic, etc) that the corrupt ones despair (the rich and rulers – corrupt). This means USA, most likely, under the Presidency of Kamala Harris and the nuclear threats.

US/Iraq War III

“The sky will burn those at 45 degrees
Fire will approach the great new city
All of a sudden a thick wall of flame will leap upwards
When they ask for proof from the Northerners.”

The author is wrong here too. This is an obvious today statement of Russia vs. USA as of October 2024. 45 degrees north latitude is everyone that can be involved in a nuclear WWIII.

Fire approaching [New York] as a leaping wall of upwards flames, means the threat of a nuclear strike on USA. USA has been making news, along with Zelensky of Ukraine, that Russia is bluffing about going nuclear. The USA made news this week that they see even still no evidence Russia will use their nukes, that Russia has made repeated empty threats about using nukes, that Russia does not dare use nukes citing the MAD principle and the way the world might see them, and repeating Russia is bluffing about using their nukes. All of this is USA saying that there is no proof Russia will use nukes, as America crossed every red line by supplying Ukraine advanced weaponry and is attacking within Russian borders and also attacking Moscow. Russia in the fall of 2022, stated that using their nukes “has already been decided”, the Wagner mutiny follows, “they tried to steal nuclear backpacks”, by the summer of 2024 Russia moves children and families to North Korea and China, and by September of 2024 changed their nuclear doctrine to any attack with conventional weapons supplied by a nuclear state will be seen as a joint-attack on Moscow and justifies use of nuclear weapons, as Putin and Medvedev state “the nuclear deterrent fails if we cannot convince our enemy that we are ready to use our nukes”, “USA: this is your final warning”, and, “USA thinks they can attack us with impunity.”

US/Iraq War IV

“The great hound is driven from the city
Importuned by the foreign alliance
The stag is harried from the field
The wolf and the bear will defy each other.”

The great hound driven from the city means, “the dogs of war”, military. Stag, wolf, and bear are national mascots. Wolf can mean Italy, Turkey. Stag is horse so Canada, Bear is Russia.

This likely means that when WWIII breaks out, Americans will be obviously pissed off at our own military (finally) because of the new-found vast military alliance, worldwide, against USA that formed by the stupidity of our military leaders (the sanctions against Russia by USA in February 2022 made the ruble worthless and forced all nations to not trade with Russia at all – Russia should have starved within 3 months, but the world jumped on board with Russia and formed a massive alliance between Russia, China (Asia), India, the Middle East, Africa, Central and South America). What this means is, if the USA gets nuked, USA citizens need to be prepared for an invasion of 6 billion people that will mop up the mess of USA. This is why the stag (Canada) is harried from the field (not a powerful nation and cannot help USA), likely Rome will defy Russia (Vatican vs Eastern Orthodox Church).

AUNG SAN SUU KYI & Burma's Military Junta

“A captive of the female sex

Will come by night; her guards will be deceived
The leader, angered by her tongue
Hands her to the people; it will be pitiful to see.”

I think the author nailed this one.

TSUNAMI I

“When fish, both land and sea-based
Are thrown onshore by strong waves
Their strangely smooth, yet horrifying appearance
Will make of the twisted walls our enemy.”

What this means to me is, a lot of fish have been washing ashore because of climate change in lakes and ocean beaches. By the thousands of fish at a moment, I have seen endless reports of this. This is why our enemy is ‘twisted walls’: the industrial revolution and our resulting fine habitats is what is causing a mass extinction that for now is limited to creatures.

Death of Pope John Paul II

The celibate Pole will die in three places in Rome
The next two flee the oppressive monster
Because Mars will occupy the papal throne
For the cock and the eagle of France, three brothers.”

Pole does mean John Paul the Pope, but what this actually says is, John Paul, Benedict, and Francis the popes will die in Rome. At that time, the monster (Lucifer as the second coming of Christ) will appear, the next two popes will flee the terror of obvious dark things concerning the story of Jesus and real condemnation, as Lucifer sits on the throne in the Vatican, the cock being the crucifixion story where Peter denied Jesus three times, the cock crowed, and Peter wept (you will want to deny this terrible version of Jesus but he will have evil power and wield demons); the eagle being USA, France being pope Francis, three brothers, John Paul, Benedict, Francis: Lucifer is born 2019 as “Jesus II”, who will occupy the Vatican throne.

Here we note Nostradamus refers to Lucifer as “monster” and his rule as “Mars”. The last popes are five popes: two popes before and after Pope Francis, as Lucifer revises the church.

Pope Benedict XVI

“A German heart is born of Trojan blood
He will wield such power
That he will chase away the foreign Arabs
Returning the church to her immaculate preeminence.”

Yep, Benedict.

Assassination of a World Leader

“The successor will avenge his handsome brother
He will take over the realm under cover of vengeance
The obstacle slain, his dead blood seethes
Britain and France will hold together for a long time.”

The successor soon to UK is Prince William who has a handsome brother Prince Harry – who will die with us in USA during this nuclear holocaust. The resulting disaster will indeed make William vengeful, meaning he will likely assassinate whoever is responsible for this madness. This is why Nostradamus names Britain and France as close allies after this near-term event.

Aftermath of Pope John Paul II's Death

“There will be seen, towards the north
Not far from Cancer, a beard-trailing star
Susa, Sienna, Bocche, Etruria
When the great one dies in Rome, the night will disappear.”

This is actually Pope Benedict's death. BEnedict, during his funeral, they chanted: “Santo Subito” because they wanted to make him a saint. (S,S,B,E) He died in December 2022 of old age in Rome, and during that month a comet with a green tail and a longer white tail was seen during the morning hours looking north, surrounding the day he died.

North Korean Crises

“Fire from above will spike the fugitives
Soon the ravens will start bickering
Earth-bound cries beg heaven for assistance
When the fighters approach the walls.”

The author is worth a read here, but this can describe the often-used plane bombings worldwide. Most of the innocent civilians are victims to bombings, then the military invades. This is a global military activity, which is why they would be begging for assistance.

Financial Meltdown / Credit Crunch

“Fake versions of gold and silver multiply
Such that after the abduction they are thrown into the lake
On their rediscovery, global exhaustion and trouble
All debts are voided.”

This, to me, is the fact of paper money. There are vast amounts of paper money from the world sitting on crates in homes and buildings all over the middle east. In USA, paper money of the rich and super-rich (oligarchs) are likely in vaults. The reason the rich would do this all along is to keep their money off the books, so that citizens of the nation and world are not aware of just how vast the riches of a person is. Consider that Bill Gates is considered the richest man. You buy windows maybe once every 5 years. You the same amount in gas at least every month, and have done so for over 100 years. Consider how filthy rich these people actually are, and this is just the last 100 years of wealth. What this means is, they will use this paper money to pay off all government debt, worldwide, and perhaps even business and personal debt, worldwide – at a time of “global exhaustion and trouble.” Even though this is crap, I do think everyone will rejoice and glorify the rich people.

Religious Revival

“The last but one holder of the prophet’s name
Will take Diana for his day and for his rest
He will wander far with his head in a frenzy
Delivering a great people from financial subjugation.”

This actually refers to Princess Diana and her lover Mohammed. See the next note on Diana.

Advance Warning of the Third Antichrist

“Stained with mass murder and adultery
This great enemy of humanity
Will be worse than any man before him
In steel, fire, water, bloody and monstrous.”

Here, I note that any time Nostradamus refers to the monster, he means Lucifer as Christ.

Global Warming I

“The sea, chastened by the sun, will no longer pass
The heat of Venus will harry all of Africa
Saturn will no longer measure its reign
The Asiatic part will change.”

This is global warming, meaning: The ocean belts north to south similar to the jet stream of the air slow down and stop. These belts are responsible for carrying cold water south and warm water north in the northern hemisphere, and also are responsible for pushing oxygen down into the ocean waters. Next, Africa becomes very hot, and it looks like the rotation of the earth will tilt a little, noted by how Saturn is no longer in its usual alignments. The part of Asia means that Asia will be vastly affected by all of this.

Dangers to John Paul II’s Successor, Benedict XVI

“He who governs with a papal cloak
Will be induced to act as a shepherd
The twelve red ones will come to bury his communion cloth
Under the cover of murder, murder will be done.”

I have noted my suspicion that Benedict was actually murdered, because Francis had a divided leadership as pope (mentioned in the “one male” prophecy, he specifically says “France” has a divided leadership and “he makes his choice.”) and this happened shortly after Benedict said Francis’ papacy has been a disaster, being critical of Francis. Not one week later, Benedict's servant Cardinal Pell, a much younger man, also died. Pell wrote a book critical of Francis, and I have seen concerning, disturbing things surrounding Francis.

Death of a Pope I

"An elected Pope, mocked by his electors
Suddenly acts, though briefly and timidly
He is killed for being too good
He will fear the death of his guide, the night he dies."

Again, Benedict and Cardinal Pell. Nostradamus spends time on this man because during Benedict's papacy was where all the church scandals started, and leads to the collapse of the churches. This had nothing to do with Benedict, but he took the blame.

Princess Diana & Dodi Fayed

"Despite all the money of Diana and Mercury
Their empty shadows will be found at the lake
For the potter in search of new clay
He and his people will be drenched with gold."

Please read the book author on this one, and refer to what I said at the previous Diana note.

Death of a Pope II

The unexpected death of the first among many
Will create change, making another man leader
Soon, but also too late, a young man will attain high office
By land and sea he must be feared."

I believe this actually refers to the unexpected death of King Charles, soon to happen. Kate Middleton has cancer, also, Harry could go with USA, making William King, then he dies (apparently by assassinating some responsible world leader himself, out of vengeance) and his very young son King Henry reigns – and yes, fear the boy. Henry will be pissed and rule.

Nicolas Sarkozy

"Via the branch of the valiant person
From the lowest part of France; through an unhappy father
Honors, riches, he will work into old age
Thanks to his faith in the counsel of the foolish man."

The author knows all about this one

Famine Relief

"From where they thought famine would come

Comes relief
The eyes of the sea are like a greedy dog's
One eye will provide oil, the other, wheat."

When America is defeated in WWIII, and the war is in the northern hemisphere, the rest of the world will fear famine (the world is fed by northern agriculture, mainly). The ones who will be most afraid of this is the middle east (oil) and who knows who provides the grains (wheat). Keep in mind the northern hemisphere is soon to be radioactive. Trade is by ocean and sea.

Hillary Clinton

"The masculine woman will exert herself to the north
She will annoy nearly all of Europe and the rest of the world
Two failures will put her in such an imbalance
That both life and death will strengthen eastern Europe."

I think with new events this refers to future events of Kamala Harris (a masculine woman). I really do think this is Kamala, and here is why: She will exert herself north (when she is President of USA, her issue is Ukraine/Russia – NATO/Communists). Her two failures will be a failure to defeat Russia, get USA nuked, and fail to form a proper nuclear response. This is why she is in an imbalance, because the USA balance of power in the world will tilt away from NATO and towards Communist rule, as NATO is not nearly as strong without the USA. This does strengthen eastern Europe, as this new USA-less European military situation means life and death. I believe Kamala will entirely get USA obliterated, and even if she does form any nuclear response to the Russians at all, it will only be against the Russian nation – and Russia will be safe and sound in Chinese ghost cities. Yes, it will annoy the EU (NATO)...

Aftermath of Roman Catholic Schism

"All the friends who held fast are now gone
Brought down and ransacked by those of little learning
The great one destroyed, his goods auctioned off
Never were the Roman people so insulted."

This refers to the fall of the Vatican, mostly child molestation. This is precisely how I see Jesus: I am his friend who held fast to his word, and learned from him by the generosity of the church printing and openly distributing gospels and books. A great one is a pope, referring to previous notes, we see Nostradamus uses key words to refer to similar people; and so we will know the timing of this because the Vatican auctions off things in order to pay their dues (it is children and parents who fell the church, along with all the scandals – by church lawsuits, indeed, the Vatican will need to come up with money). This is why it says "never were the Roman people so insulted", because the church will be infiltrated by atheists that are trying to bring the church down. Remember, churches and catholics especially are so open that anyone may attend and participate. Unknowingly, people will sow scandals and intentionally bring the church down, from within it, making the church seem delusional. This passage can be seen when the Vatican literally does end – the last pope, perhaps – but in the least this refers, by definition, the scandals and lawsuits against the Vatican. As of 2024, this actually may have already happened, because I do remember the church selling its assets around the years 2014-2022. This is definitely the allegations against the Catholic Priests...

The Healing of the Catholic Confederacy

“The false/saintly union will not endure
Some had converted: most had entered the reformed church
Inside the vessels a sweetly enduring tribe
When Rome has a new leopard/adherent.”

What this actually means is, under Lucifer’s leadership as Jesus, the entire church is reformed. This is the reason why there is a false saintly union (false saints), where everyone is converted to the reformed church and some stay with the old ways, rejecting that this is Jesus. This is why Rome has a new leopard (Revelation – beast) and adherent (following).

Succession to the UK Throne

“Through the pretend fury of divine emotion
The wife of the great one will be badly wronged
Judges wish to condemn such a doctrine
The victim will be sacrificed to the ignorant people.”

What this actually means is, we refer to the key “great one” as pope. This then allows us to see that one of the church reforms under Lucifer (as Jesus) is to allow church members to marry (Priests, Cardinals, Pope, etc.), which tells us when a future pope marries under this new church doctrine which allows priests, etc. to marry, she gets condemned by her fury and emotion? Perhaps she pretends to love her husband, and is condemned by the church, and put to death by the church’s followers (likely crucified).

Sunni / Shiite War

“The Arab prince Mars, the Sun, Venus and the Lion
The reign of the Church will be vanquished at sea
Close to a million men will head towards Persia,
Byzantium, Egypt, the followers of the true serpent will invade.”

What this means is, The Arabs (Middle Eastern); The Church (Mars), the Sun (? Japan), Venus (? Likely the United Nations (there is a United Nations Venus Council – peace keepers ), and the Lion (either the UK or Africa), will be involved in a war, and the Church will be destroyed at sea. Then the Middle East, basically, will invade India (Persia). Notice how the Arab language today looks like the writing of a serpent (Arabic). Egypt now uses Arabic.

Discovery of the Philosopher’s Stone

“When Venus is covered by the sun
Shapes will be concealed beneath its splendor
Mercury, with its fire, will expose them

They will be misused in war."

This refers to my previous note on WWIII (2022-2049), Venus (the UN), Mercury (refers to a thermometer – climate change heat, global heating), the timing of this is referring to solar eclipses over UN nations, because here, “sun” is lower-cased, meaning not a name, but literally the sun, or instead of solar eclipses, meaning, climate change (dry periods, drought). Quite literally, what this means is, climate change will be a topic during WWIII, the idea of nuclear fallout will be argued because of the effects nukes would have on the climate.

The Sun II

“The sun is hidden, eclipsed by Mercury
It will take second place in the sky
Hermes will be eaten by Vulcan
The sun will be seen, pure, gleaming and fair.”

The author says “this is a warning to not tinker with things we do not understand.” He makes a point, because even with climate change, we will never have a Mercury eclipse. He then says Hermes (the Greek Mercury, and man’s drive for scientific discovery), both literally played with fire, Vulcan eats Hermes (the blacksmith whose dominion is fire). This means our science is going to be another factor in the end of man on this planet.

The Sun is Blotted Out and Secrets Lost

“More than eleven times the moon will not want the sun
Each augmenting and declining by degree
Placed so low that little gold will be seen whilst sewing
So that, after famine, the discovery of the secret will be lost.”

Remember that Nostradamus says the earth will tilt its rotation. Already, the North Pole has shifted towards Russia, rather rapidly. This should cause the angle of the earth’s rotation to the sun to also shift as well. This will have the effect of temporarily preventing the moon from lunar and solar eclipses. The famine will happen as a result of WWIII, and “the secret” refers to the word of God, which will likely be lost because of Lucifer (as Jesus)...

Political Correctness I

“A time will come when meat gives way to fish
Communal law will go against the people
The old order will fight hard and then be ousted
The will of the people will be repulsed.”

What this means is after WWIII, people will enter a new phase where they will have to protect land-dwelling animals, because mass extinction will be the theme afterwards. This does lead to communal, or martial law – and people will be forced to obey the will of world rulers, and forced to live in new ways, because of mass extinction and planetary survival.

Birth of the Third Antichrist – Presage I

“Though born in poverty, he will take supreme power
He will tyrannize and bankrupt his people
Raising a thousand-year army
Though lucky, he costs lives and gold.”

Although Nostradamus does not use the usual word “monster”, I agree with the author that this is the Antichrist Lucifer. Being born in poverty is to members of the church, who as nuns and priests are typically poor. Taking supreme power is obvious when he reveals himself as the living second coming of Christ, taking his throne at the Vatican. Lucifer will indeed tyrannize people (condemnation, crucifixions, etc) and bankrupt the church. The thousand-year army refers to “the thousand”, which is church prophecy at the end. This is for Lucifer to fulfill all the evil portions of Jesus, dipping his robes in blood and defeating all the evil men, and so it is seen Lucifer will create an international alliance and military under the banner of the Church. He will be protected at all cost (lucky), but you will surely die and go broke, and be terrorized under Lucifer’s (Jesus’) leadership.

Birth of the Third Antichrist – Presage II

“Milk and the blood of frogs flows in Dalmatia
Battle is joined, there is plague near Balennes
Wailing will echo throughout enslaved Slovenia
When the monster is born in and near Ravenna.”

Dalmatia refers to modern day Croatia. It has a frog museum that is near a fourth-century palace called froggyland, and a taxidermy of 1000 frogs of which only 550 species remain. In 2019, during coronavirus, they tried to sell it to the USA. Balennes refers to the islands named Ballena near Canada, suffice to say Coronavirus was a USA bioweapon. Battle is joined, because we nearly broke out in WWIII in 2019 because of the south china sea, Russia fired a hypersonic and North Korea almost launched at us. This was done under Trump as POTUS (whose wife is Melania, his sex slave, a Slovic), and in 2019 was when I noted Lucifer was born in September (in Italy, Ravenna literally, or Vatican (aBcD... qRStU.. so Vatican City). 2019 was Lucifer incepted (easter) and born (september) as Jesus II...

Class War

“Trickery will reign, the army will be stripped
An obsession with class, spying given free reign
False friends will unite
Hatred, once quiescent, will be reawakened.”

This literally refers to the USA civil war of 2016-now. The army will be stripped because we will be defeated easily in one day by Russia soon. Yes, the USA citizens do have an obsession with class, noted in 2016 that we have reduced ourselves to “class warfare” and “tribal identities”, where you have, at least for me, instant abilities to monitor me at any time, anywhere. Your smart phones allow you to do a lot of stuff against me, as right now my neighbors practice spying on me here, the police and FBI spy on me and tap me – and so can you – all of you have access that only the FBI should have on me. You will soon do this to one another in your “hate war”, that the vietnam vets proudly declared in 2016: “It’s gonna be civil war! Whites, vs. Blacks! It’s gonna be drugs!...” and you so far have fought this civil class war of hate, with yes, drugs, sex, and crime. After WWIII, USA will be chaos. Keep in mind you are fighting me, the schizo, with social cues, clues, and hints (tricks).

Birth of the Third Antichrist – Presage III

“At the total eclipse of the sun
The monster will be seen in broad daylight
He will be misinterpreted
None will have foreseen the great cost.”

Even the author has this as the birth of Lucifer. I noted he was incepted during a Pagan ritual in a Basilica underneath the Vatican, Easter, 2019, and was born by the end of September, 2019. They would have presented him as the living baby Jesus on December 25. There was a solar eclipse on December 26, 2019. That was the timing of a speech by Pope Francis at et el Orbi suggesting “christ is born today” and telling his church members, “we must declare that Jesus is born this day – Jesus is here.” Read that speech by Pope Francis and try and see why hairs are standing on my neck. Yes, Lucifer is misinterpreted, seen as the second coming of Christ. This is a disaster, as Lucifer will terrorize the world, and bring the end.

Winter Freeze

“At the entrance to the Garonne and Bazas
And the forest close to Damazan
Mont-de-Marsan is frozen, then hail and northerly winds
Dordogne freezes, but in the wrong house (Mezin).”

What I will add is why this happens: climate change, and the shifting of the north pole. This will cause, over time, the earth to tilt, and the rotation therefore, the angle to the sun as north pole is right now close to Moscow. The pole was on a rapid march in 2019-2021. This would indicate why France and Europe is suddenly freezing, while North America is dry. The author has this one, Bazan, Mezin and Marsaves is the Mont-de-Marsan. They are located within a forty-mile radius of each-other, on the south bank of the River Garonne, in south-western france. The Dordogne (sixty miles north) is renowned for its abominable winter weather.

Birth of the Third Antichrist

“From deep in the western part of Europe
A child will be born, to poor parents
He will seduce the multitude with his tongue
The noise of his reputation will grow in the eastern kingdom.”

This, again, either refers to Hitler or Lucifer. It can fit in both cases. In the case of Adolf Hitler, deep within Europe, born to poor parents, seducing the masses with his speeches, as his fame and power, he is seen as a great man, and his fame continues in the east (Communism). If this means Lucifer, then the latter follows the former’s lead...

War Between Australia and Indonesia

“Shortly before the eclipse of the sun
A war is triggered by a great nation of unbelievers
Wastefully, the seaport does not fight back
Bridge and memorial are dissevered.”

The author has this pretty much nailed, again. He says “Australia is a secular nation, 13 July 2037 a solar eclipse will split Australia – which is during the 27 year war between 2022-2049; the author says the clues lead to Surabaya, the second largest city and seaport in Indonesia after Jakarta. It’s largest monument is Tugu Pahlawan, a memorial to the heroes who died during independence from 1945-1949, and the famous Red Bridge now known as China Town, is the site of the Great Battle of Surabaya, which took place on 10 November 1945.” WWIII looks to be truly global, and I mean with Lucifer’s army (the church alliance), it’s simply global – everyone, everywhere.

Greco-Turkish Problem

“The people of Rhodes will ask for help
Robbed, thanks to the actions of their forebears
The Arab Empire returns like for like
Its cause is straightened out by the West.”

This means the island of Rhodes, during WWIII, when the terrorist Middle East (Arab Empire) attacks north. They hate northerners as infidels. Muslims were created notably out of the rule of the Holy Roman Empire during that past time, and for this reason the north is who the Muslim Empire attacks during WWIII, and is defeated by the western alliance.

Great Storm

“A short while after a previous occurrence
A further fierce storm will rise over land and sea
The sea-born cost of this one will be even larger
Fire, animals, it will be an even greater outrage.”

This obviously refers to recurrences of worsening storms during climate change...

End of Monarchy in Britain I

“The young man, born to rule Britain
Though commended by his dying father
Once the father is dead, London will cavil
And the kingdom will be taken back from his son.”

This means King Henry (George). I have noted that Charles dies unexpectedly (now as of 2024) and William gets on a vengeance for events related to USA and Harry. Once William dies, it is notable that the UK seems to hate its Royal Family, meaning George will be the last King of England. I then have to wonder what leader of the UK is the one who will be feared by land and by sea, but in any case the UK is more powerful than the world thinks.

End of Monarchy in Britain II

“The castles of the besieged will be locked
They will fall because of gunpowder
The traitors will be imprisoned alive
Never before have the Saxons been so piteously divided.”

This is more description about the hatred the UK has for its Royal Family.

End of Monarchy in Britain III

“Royal blood will be diluted
France will be gagged by the Americans
Some time will need to pass
Until the memory of all that was said passes away.”

I believe part of the hatred against the Royal Family is obviously bigotry and racism, noted by the statements from Harry and Meghan that indicate recent racism and slavery accusation.

Religious Wars I

“Weapons of war will scream in the sky
That same year even holy men will become enemies
They will unfairly attempt to suppress the Sacred Law
True believers will die by war and shock.”

This means that once the nukes fly at the official outbreak of global WWIII, religious people of all kinds will be a part of the war, and disregard the Ten Commandments and such. Some really good people will be in the middle of all of this – consider such a global disaster of a war. Everyone, even innocent children, will be right in the thick of global world war three.

Religious Wars II

“When the shooting star appears
The three great princes will fall out
World peace will falter, struck from the sky
Both Tiber and Po will overflow, and a serpent will be placed on their banks.”

This means world war erupts as soon as the nukes fly. Tiber and Po overflowing with snakes is meant to signify that the sacred waters have entered into a hellish time (serpent - the devil).

Chemical Warfare

“A rainbow will appear, by night, near Nantes
Seafaring men will call up artificial rain
A great fleet will be fused in the Arabian gulf
In Saxony, a monster will be born of a bear and a sow.”

The author does indicate that this means France, UK, etc will produce chemical weapons, basically, of mass destruction, to be used during WWIII.

Catholic / Jewish Miscegenation

“How heaven mourns the birth of the Hermaphrodite
Near to heaven, human blood is shed
Too late, through death, a great people are recreated
Help comes both too early, and too late.”

This means that all transgenders will be put to death. Yes, before birth they were not transgender (spirit), as defects are only a problem of the body (the flesh). Once in heaven, they are their proper sex again. This is why too early, too late, is any help. Just like everyone hates me for my defect, and it drove me crazy, and they hated that and never stopped; with the large LGBTQ+ movements for rights, people will turn on these people like they did me. America is done with the schizophrenics, which is why everyone basically tortured me. I tried to warn the churches and jews that America was Holocausting me, and they could be next.

Apparently, the world is done with the defects, all of us, and this indicates it.

Collective Unconscious

“Following one great human tragedy, a greater one lies in wait
The mighty movement of the centuries brings renewal
Rain, blood, milk, famine, sword and the plague
Fire will be seen in the sky, with a trail of sparks.”

What this actually means is, to disagree with the author again, after the first global nuclear war and fallout between USA and Russia, there will be another nuclear fallout. The mighty movement of the centuries is indeed war. So despite the first nuclear fallout being so tragic, they seem to not have learned their lesson and there is a second global nuclear exchange.

Meteor Strikes as Harbingers of Change

“In the vicinity of Auch, Lectoure and Mirande
A great fire will fall from the sky for three nights
A stupendous, well-aimed, and spectacular occurrence
Soon afterwards the earth will tremble and be ruffled.”

The author is right, France is nailed by an asteroid, tying into Revelation, during their WWIII.

Global Warming II

“The scorching of the wide, fertile plains of Bordeaux
Will produce so many gadflies and locusts
That sunlight will become opaque
They will devour everything, bringing a terrible plague.”

This literally means that the locust problems that can happen after fires in Africa will become a problem north in the southern EU. This can happen as the globe heats up, and can also be during times of terrible winter, as climate change events should be taken as chaotic between now to 3797, over the period of 2,000 years that we have remaining.

US Hurricanes / Global Warming III

“The great maritime ocean city
Surrounded by salt marshes
In both the winter solstice and the spring
Will be tormented by a frightful wind.”

This refers to hurricane seasons in Virginia, or rather worsening hurricane seasons for USA.

French Immigration

“French State, you will be changed
Your realm will be modified in singular ways
Rouen will be eaten by other laws and customs
Chartres will be even worse.”

Yep, immigration, seen already by Muslim migrants to the EU.

Terrorism

“They will unite against the red sects
The peace will be undermined by fire, water, and iron
The plotters will die by the sword
Except one, whom the people will destroy.”

This is a terrorist act against the Vatican (red sects). The terrorists will die, and they make an example out of one of the terrorists, whom is killed by the people instead, as a warning...

Emancipation of Muslim Women

“A city obsessed by walls between the sexes
Finds the enemy outside and its chief priest prepared to surrender
The wind will fan the sparks
They will be driven off by heat, dust, and cinders.”

Remember that the second nuclear global exchange was followed by sparks (widespread bombings). This means that the Muslim cities after this exchange will be bombed and obliterated, the description of the Middle Eastern dust storms mixed with heat and cinders.

Battle of the Sexes

“The laws of the sun and of Venus will clash
Appropriating the spirit of prophecy
Neither the one nor the other will be heard
The Great Messiah’s law will prevail through the sun.”

This indicates marriage law is challenged, like adultery. Essentially, there will be a battle of morality mixed with law, and the Church will win in the debate, basically.

Book Burning

“The young Nero, using three chimneys
Will burn the living word in his ardour
Happy the person far from such practices
Three of his own blood will watch him die.”

This means that some leader of Rome will burn bibles, basically.

Islam Disturbs the Balance of World Power I

“In the reverse of a Babylonian climate
There will be much bloodshed
Land, sea, air and heaven will be iniquitous
Sects, hunger, new kingdoms, plagues and confusion follow.”

This, simply put, is an easy description of modern terrorist nations in the middle east.

Islam Disturbs the Balance of World Power II

“The horrible war being prepared by the West
Will be followed, the next year, by the plague
So terrible in its effect that it spares not young, old, nor animal
Blood, fire, Mercury, Mars, Jupiter in France.”

This is actually a description of Coronavirus. N. points out that it was the USA who did COVID as a bioweapon. This indicates that world war three was planned and prepared by the West. Recent news suggests this is true, being that NATO aggression and expansion has been cited by Russian news outlets as the cause of this WWIII erupting, and this plan of world war seems to go at least as far back as George Bush jr, so the year 2000, and as of 2024 it has been revealed that it was NATO who was expanding to Ukraine, Taiwan, and all areas surrounding China and Russia. If N. is pointing out that this is a NATO plan all along, it would indicate the conspiracy theorists are not insane – that the plan was one world government, a world order, a world unity, and a world alliance under the banner of NATO and the UN. Mercury, Mars, and Jupiter represent heat, something that has recently occurred in the EU and France, citing the heatwaves seen in 2022-2024 (current).

Islam Disturbs the Balance of World Powers III

“You will see, sooner or later, great changes occurring
Extreme horrors and vengeances
As if the moon, led by its angel
Approaches heaven and its inclinations.”

This is not limited to Islamic Terrorism, but applies to all world leaders and all nations. We are going to have our world war three the same way USA has its civil war – everybody hates everybody and the situation is boiling over. The world is a powder-keg and everyone has a match, my friend put it. This is a human end of absolute chaos – face it.

Crises In the Roman Catholic Church I

“What plague and the sword could not finish
Dies at the wellhead, struck from the sky
The abbot will die when he sees the ruin
Of those lost overboard, trying, in vain, to reclimb the ladders.”

What this means is world war three, accompanied by bioweapons, will include the Vatican as part of this war, and apparently Italy is nuked and the Vatican City is radioactive like USA, drinking radioactive water (wellhead). Abbot is the pope, in Vatican ruins, the ladder representing Jacob's ladder. This world war is true vanity at all angles.

Crises in the Roman Catholic Church III

“After the victory of the Prattling tongues
The spirit quietens in tranquility and repose
The victor, flushed with triumph, makes speeches
Roasted be his tongue, his flesh and his bones.”

This is some future Atheism vs. Religion, and the Atheist wins the argument.

England and Scotland fall out over EU

“London's prime minister, ruled by America
Will freeze out the Scottish enclave
The Rob Roys will pick themselves so false an Antichrist
That they will be thrown into the mix.”

Notable: 2016: Donald Trump election USA, Brexit... The author is correct here.

Third Antichrist I

“The eagerly awaited one will never return
To Europe, but will reappear in Asia
One of the confederacy descended from great Hermes
He will grow above all other kings of the Orient.”

This refers to what I said: the second coming of Jesus was during the Nazi Holocaust, referencing psalms. He never returns. Who shows up is Lucifer as the Christ, because Rome became desperate. This refers to him going to Asia, perhaps in this life, perhaps at a later time. This basically tells us that Jesus never returns, but evil ones do, as him.

Third Antichrist II

“The third Antichrist will soon be annihilated
His war will have lasted for twenty-seven years
The heretics are dead, captive, or exiled
Human blood reddens the water that covers the earth in hail.”

This refers to WWIII (2022-2049), so please refer to Psalms 122-149 on this as some guide. This is why Psalms ends at 150 for 2050, because WWIII is the event that seals the end. This war will be dominated by nuclear disaster, and the heretics refer to the fact that during this WWIII, Lucifer will be at the head of the Vatican, posing as the second coming of Christ.

Aftermath of the Coming of the Third Antichrist

“He will be born of the pit and of the immeasurable city
Product of dark and infernal parents
Who wish the power of the great and revered king
To be destroyed by Rouen and Evreux.”

Lucifer as Jesus is a result of Vatican desperation for the second coming. They held a ritual in a basilica underground (pit), in Vatican City (immeasurable city). He is the son of Satan, the prince of devils (dark and infernal parents), who wishes to destroy the power of Jesus. We have no idea what Rouen and Evreux are, but it is a clue. I checked, Rouen is a city on the prefecture of northern France by the river Siene. It is where Normandy is, so Rouen could imply the military of USA. Evreux is a commune in and the capital of the department of Eure, in the french region of normandy. All of this basically means that the power of Jesus (Christianity) will be destroyed by the USA military. When I pointed out to an officer that I am a Judeo-Christian, but am not a Jew or a Christian, out of my agreements and disagreements, the officer said, “Religion is a problem.” It is USA military aggression and NATO expansion that leads us to WWIII, and the Communists were prepared for their part. In Ukraine 2014-2024, Russia repeatedly states all of what I suspected and more in their RT news site. The communists, in their minds, are simply defending against a NATO expansion whose aim is to cause the globe to submit to NATO and USA power, thereby a USA world order. The USA military is fully adhered to this. Our USA military reads satanic books and plays devil worshiping games for fun, and mocks all forms of religion or belief in God. The USA military is worshiped by the USA public, and we have the Statue of Liberty, the great whore babylon, mystery woman, which is a Goddess of Love and Fertility. Here, it becomes obvious that God knows Lucifer wants to end the power of Jesus' word in the world, by means of USA military.

The Future of Israel

"The old man conceals stern laws beneath his beard
The Lion is raised above the wedge-shaped Eagle
The great man, small in size, persists too long
There is the sound of weapons from the sky:
The Red Sea turns Ligurian."

The author has this, I think, and he says, "The leader of Israel is a hard taskmaster. His people have the ascendency over the Arabs. But he does not know when to stop. The Arabs resort to trickery: a terrible war ensues." This is happening right now, and I do believe this third world war will be the end of Israel – as I have no idea how the Jews will defeat 2 billion Muslim Terrorists, as America falls, Israel falls easily. Stern laws can refer to the laws of the Jews in addition to the ten commandments that the Jews take strictly and can enact in full in Israel. The lion refers to the tribe of judah, and the wedge-shaped eagle refers to the eagle that Germany uses, namely, the Nazis. The great man small in size might refer to Netanyahu, who persists as leaders too long, the sounds of weapons from the sky obviously the manner in which, if we include nuclear weapons, will easily put a fast defeat of Israel today, turning the red sea to Ligurian, which lastly refers to a city in Italy and a Sea near the Mediterranean.

US and China see Eye to Eye

"One day the two great leaders will become friends
Their great power will become greater
The new world will be at its highest point
The number shall be told to the red one."

This is what happens after WWIII, I presume, the red one referring to the church. A combined USA-China alliance is something I was trying between USA-Russia, the combined power so formidable that even as of 2024, the world cannot challenge the combined rule.

Secularization of a Super State

"The man whose duty it is to destroy
Fantasy-driven temples and sects
Will confine himself to the inanimate
And to those whose ears are filled with vainglory."

This refers to the military of the world, and their aspirations for world order and world peace by winning the world war for good. It is desired by all world powers, when it comes to military, to win a full global military victory. This is a fantasy that is shared between all military powers in their own circles, and is a delusion. Winning a full military victory over your enemies (Take, for example, Israel wanting to defeat the Arabs) in order to have sustaining peace is a delusional fantasy. So you won WWIII. What now? Your enemy will only return stronger. This is why the military will confine themselves to the inanimate, and for those that listen to the military aspirations, these people are in vain, but believe in the glory...

The Emergence of a New Religious Sect

“A religion with the name of the sea will win
Against the sect of the bound and captive son
This obstinate and much deplored sect will live in fear
Of the two injured by Aleph & Aleph.”

This refers to the Christians being defeated by the Arabs. An aleph is the hebrew term for the ‘-’ in ‘uh-oh’, and in Arabic, an aleph is found at the beginning of a word. The religion with the name of the sea can refer to the Houthis, in the Gaza Strip. So, what this implies is that during world war three, the Islamic Terrorists will defeat the Christians.
We will live in fear, as Christians, from the Terrorists during this time.
This is why the two injured by Aleph, Arabic and Hebrew, currently at war...

French Crises III

“For a long time a grey bird will be seen
High above Dole and Tuscany
Holding in its beak a flowering branch
The great one will soon die, and the war shall end.”

This indicates some pope dying, and some war ends. Tuscany is Italian, Dole is referring, so far, in definition, to providing food (humanitarian aid). It seems during this WWIII, the church will be providing humanitarian aid, and at the death of a pope, WWIII ends.

Global Warming IV / Mediterranean Famine

“Due to the sun overheating the sea
The fish from Negroponte will be parboiled
The local inhabitants will claim them
While people in Rhodes and Genoa are starving.”

This refers, definitely, to global warming, which will be exacerbated by nuclear war. To remind you: 1901 news article from a scientist: “Dear coal and oil consumers: within 1,000 years, burning fossil fuels will put enough co2 in the atmosphere to boil the oceans.” These things are beginning to happen already, as of 2014-2024, and is why ocean life has begun to attack people and boats, beaches and surfers...

Submarine Warfare

“When a letter is enclosed inside an iron fish
The man who emerges is entitled to make war
His fleet will travel beneath the boughs of the sea

Reappearing near a Latin land."

This refers to USA / Russia submarine warfare. We all know very well that Russian submarines are always camped out around American waters, by the coastlines. Here, the latin land is south america, and cuba – which as of 2024 is allied with Russia. South America being allied with the Communists opens the doors for a very large invasion of billions of Muslims, Indians, and Chinese through our southern border...

Nostradamus Takes His Leave

"Twenty years after the moon's reign is over
Another monarch will take over for seven thousand years
When the sun finally takes its leave
My prophesying will be accomplished."

The last line refers to the fact that we won't be certain of the truth regarding Nostradamus' quatrains until the full truth is revealed to us in heaven. Bear in mind – the gospels as we know it are a lie, concerning the life of Immanuel...

The author alludes to the sun and moon to be masculine and feminine, left brain and right brain, stating armageddon and also the end of the world and beginning of the spirit.

What I will add is, in my mind:

The moon's reign being over refers to the end of the earth.

The monarch ruling for seven thousand years refers to heaven with Immanuel as King. To remind you: "My kingdom is not of this world. Whosoever discovers the world is a corpse is above the all. I came into the world so that they might have life more abundantly..." His word taught me, once understood, that life alternates between body and spirit. God causes atonement for all, and heaven for all; applying the same measure of our good and evil measured as sin and righteousness – as judgment applied to all. In this, I reject the notion of eternal heaven and hell – eternal heaven, because one eternal life is not for mortals, and the church notion of bliss, fantasy, dream, and desire is temptation; eternal hell, because nobody deserves such a description of totality of extreme hell in ultimate pain, agony, torture, torment, and suffering, so horrible that no heaven could ever compensate. The church notion of eternal heaven merged with hell as one is an evil belief. The truth Immanuel's word taught me was be content with his "thousand year reign of heaven". Eternal life as one life is not for us mortals. But God gave us heaven on earth, and heaven in the spirit, and that is one.

The sun finally taking its leave means the end of our heaven, and our spiritual death. Think of this as a passing away that is gentle like a cloud drifting like smoke back to God, until all is prepared for once again, mortal life, heavenly life; in that sense of eternity. If things are not done this way, God would be forced to rapidly create for us ceaselessly as we destroy worlds, enter heaven, etc. Creating worlds takes time, a day to God is simply a period of eternity.

This is the way Immanuel taught me:

1. Life in the flesh as a mortal.
2. Death as a mortal in the flesh
3. Being risen from the dead in the end of the days of Eden
4. A "thousand years" of heaven
5. Death in the spirit (the soul returning to God)

This then, is the nature of life for all. Atonement causes repentance, with teaching of the wisdom of God, we become better goodness over eternal time, a good world full of good people is all we ever need to sustain a planet indefinitely – as all has an end. To remind you: "This sky will pass away, and the heaven above it, but my word will never die."

The Great Comedian

"Time present and time past
Will be judged by the great comedian
The world will tire of him when it is too late
Having forsaken its conventional clergy."

Quite simply, we joke about horrible shit. It won't be funny at this end that began to be sealed in 1901 (Psalms 1), God declaring to me the time of His harvest (2019, Psalms 119), and the timing of this world war three that sets our end in stone (2022-2049 King of Terror = Putin, MABUS = obaMA BUSH, because these leaders are who started WWIII), and the only reason

I see that caused the end was the theory of evolution. When you rejected the notion of creation and denied God's existence, it was over. We simply began to do whatever it was we wanted, without regard for our sin, without discernment or care between right or wrong, anything according to man's laws and man's ways, as it was proven to you that man is the only thing man should be concerned with. Nobody cares about commandments or sin because you believe God is not real, and there is no consequence for your actions unless man finds you guilty of crimes. The fact the Jews held on to Genesis is a miracle. I find that because of evolution, the end came. We servants could have fixed absolutely all else. But man rejecting God's existence and doing whatever they wanted sealed the end. There is absolutely no evidence in the fossil records of any creature slowly adapting into a different species (you would see the slow, gradual blend of fossils everywhere). Because of the lack of evolutionary fossil records, a fish would be required to give birth to a community of frogs...

The end only came by denying God's very existence.
"To be angry is easy! There will be a time for your anger..."
"Without Gods, man is nothing."
~ Remember the wisdom of your forebears ~

Armageddon / The Final Prophecy

"When the great number seven completes itself
Games will begin at the Tomb side
Not far from the turn of the Millennium
The dead will rise out of their graves."

I have special insight into this one. Armageddon is happening right now, as of 2024. Mans' Final Battle is happening on earth. The angels are fighting at this time with demons, as God said to me clearly in the fall of 2022: "They did not listen. Let us begin.." Then he left me and joined his angels (God is not ever truly far away). 2022 sealed it as the Kremlin gave its last statement about nuclear war and said to USA: "but it's been decided. We are going to nuclear war." As Lucifer is here pretending to be jesus, in the summer of 2022 he was about 3 years old, so could speak. We were joking because God instructed him to punish man. We laughed about how we could fulfill all the evil things of Jesus in the gospels, and revelation, saying we came to fulfill! It was hilarious, and we planned out how we can get the zombie apocalypse going by raising corpses and decided that all he could do is animate the dead rotten corpse like some doll. He finally looked at the stars and I know what he is going to do. He will conjure spirits and make you believe they have risen. He can do stuff like that, but the spirits are actually split-offs of lucifer in different forms. Satan has a power of possession and reverse possession, the point of which is to assume you, assume your power, by force and also by wearing you out. Lucifer was given a circle of stones, remember? His power is mostly magic, and as magic can conjure fake spirits, go figure...

On God's side of things:

The great number seven completing refers to Him ending His day of rest.

Creation is happening slowly in our time: two new worlds for us.

He is waging a war by angels vs demons, and has not yet Himself acted.

He and Immanuel can raise the spirit from the dead for us, so heaven began 2,000 years ago.

This is all not far from the turn of the millennium, the year 2000 AD.

This Section Contains Quatrains that I am not clear on. It is all still worth a read, and I'm including this, because I do intend to leave behind my notebook, hoping it survives, so that others realize what happened. All of this explains why I failed at world salvation. These are the things the world did. There is no mention of my works...

The events here can be near-term (WWIII) or too far out in the future to know today (WWIV, timelines between 2050-4000 AD)

New Orleans Floods

“The great city will be laid to waste
Not even one inhabitant will remain
Walls, women, churches and virgins are violated
People will die by knife, fire, plague and gunshot.”

I actually think this means what will happen to metropolitan cities during WWIII...

Crises in the Protestant Church

“Lightning will enter the sealed church
The people inside will be deeply aggrieved
Horses, cattle, men, the ripened wave will touch them all
Due to hunger and thirst, even the weakest will arm themselves.”

I haven't the faintest on this one, except that lightning struck the cathedral notre dame.

Nuclear Fission

“Gold and silver are fused by the ark's devastating power
The one is cannibalized by the other
The leader of the city is stretched
When the fleet travels underwater.”

We don't know what this refers to, all we know is this is about some nuclear submarines.

Abortion Debate Reignites in the Catholic Church

“The soul-less body will no longer be sacrificed
It will be born on the day of death
The divine spirit will make the soul happy
Seeing the eternal word.”

No idea what this is either, but yes, it refers to abortion.

Ecological Disasters I

“Scythes in the mill-run, joining towards Sagittarius
In its high mill-course of exaltation
Plague, famine, and death through war
The century approaches its remaking.”

Refer to the book on this and I will add “as a result of world wars that dominated our century”

Ecological Disasters II

“In the place where Hero mourned
Such a great and sudden flood will occur
That there will be no land left to cling to
The waves will rise over Mount Olympus.”

This quite literally says Greece will be in the sea. It can also refer to rising oceans by climate change, burying islands in the sea. This event is far out into the future, consider climate change within the next 1,000 years.

Ecological Disasters III

“For forty years the iris will not appear
For a further forty, it shall be seen every day
The already arid earth will grow still more parched
Great floods, when the iris is seen again.”

This literally describes what to expect with the fact that we screw up the climate. Long periods of drought, floods, chaos.

Scandals in the Roman Catholic Church

“Mount Aventine will be seen burning by the night
The sky will unexpectedly obscure Flanders
When the leader chases out his nephew
Church people will cause scandals.”

The author dates this 21 August 2017, when a solar eclipse is over Flanders.

Scandals in the Roman Catholic Church II

“A voice is heard from high on Mount Aventine
Leave, leave, all of you, on both sides
Anger will only be satisfied if the reds bleed
The calumny is revealed by Rimini and Prato.”

We don't know this yet (again, future events too far away to see clearly)

Scandals in the Roman Catholic Church III

“After their correction has burnt the ass drivers
They will be forced out of their habits and into new clothing
The Saturnians are roasted by the millers
Though most of them will not be converted.”

Some unforeseen changes in the Vatican Church

Islamic Terrorism

“The comfortably off will lose half of their possessions
The trouble comes from three brothers
Enemies will seize the naval city
Hunger, fire, blood, plague, and of every evil, the twin.”

The author says the three brothers are the three fatwas issued by Al-Qaeda. It was founded by Bin Laden in the 80s. Some future attack on a Naval base and terrorism.

Islamic Attack on a Northern French Port

“Because of French carelessness and misunderstanding
The Mohammedans will find a way in
Blood will soak the Seine by land and sea
The Phocensian port will fill with sails and vessels.”

Future events, again, refer to the book.

Terrorist Attack in Southern France

“Three low-slung ships enter the port of Agde
Carrying infected unbelievers and plagues
Many things will happen, a million souls will die
The bridge will break at the third arch.”

This quite literally means there will be a terrorist attack in the future at a ship port, and the clue is “Agde”, as the port’s name. The terrorists will be infected with bio-weapons, having arrived at the COVID example, as a terror attack. The bridge at the port will quite literally break at the third arch, giving you the exact port this happens at...

Birth of an Island

“A deep white clay feeds the rock
Which boils up from an abyss like milk

Needlessly afraid, the people won't touch it
Being ignorant of the clay in the earth's heart."

We don't know this future event, when, where, what, or how.

Abdication of King Charles III

"Because they disapproved of his divorce
A man, who, later, they considered unworthy
The people will force out the King of the Islands
A man will replace him who never expected to be king."

This is NOT King Charles, but some king way out in the future. Keep in mind, England wants to end the Royal Throne, a UK that hates its own royal family. But we already know William then Henry, at minimum, will be king and rule. Remember N. goes until 3797 AD.

Poor Sir Bevis

"The Ascap camp leaves Europe
Re-forming near the submerged island
The d'Arton fleet folds and bends
A new world center, with a louder voice, replaces it."

I would say nobody actually knows what this is, neither does the author.

New First Family – Precursor

"The two contenders will unite together
When most others unite with Mars
The African leader is fearful, and trembles
The dual alliance is separated by the fleet."

Future event again, the key "Mars" refers to the Church under Lucifer (as Jesus)

New First Family

"Mars and the scepter are like husband and wife
Under Cancer there will be a calamitous war
Soon afterwards a new King will be anointed
Who, for a long time, will appease the earth."

Again, "Mars" = the reformed Church rule (scepter), meaning they will rule with power. Cancer refers to the northern people, the north. The war will be to the south of this north, and a new King is appointed (the return of the royal family), after this war.

Six Lucky Gamblers

“In the islands where five rivers flow into one
By the crescent of the great Chyren Selin
The fury of one man will float on the mist
Six will escape, hidden in a load of linen.”

Future event, the author has no idea and neither do I. Chyren = “Henry”, so during King Henry’s reign of the UK, this will at a later time become clearer, perhaps because we have no idea about anywhere that five rivers flow to one, but because of climate change and flooding with droughts, and land changes, this will be clearer at a later time.

The Sun I

“The man from the East will leave his home
And cross the Apennine Mountains, to see France
He will pierce through the skies, the seas, and the snow
He will strike everyone with his staff.”

This refers to some leader in Asia. We don’t know.

US Presidential Election

“The great empire will continue, year on year
One man will snatch it from the others
Both his life and his reign will be brief
He will only carry the load for two years.”

Could mean the USA after WWIII, could mean the UK after the Royal Family is exiled...

Political Correctness II

“The French nation will be consumed by regret
With a frivolous heart, they trusted to rashness
Bread, salt, no wine, water; poison, not beer
Their leader made captive: hunger, cold, and want ensue.”

This is France post-WWIII, we don’t know yet. Apparently France and the UK become the central players in the world post-USA rule...

Political Correctness III

“The senseless anger of the furious war
Will cause brotehrs to unsheathe their knives across the table
Driven apart, wounded, prying
The pride-driven duel will hurt France.”

Basically, kids are going to kill themselves like a TikTok game during WWIII/climate change.

Birth of the Third Antichrist – Consequences

“A great King falls into the hands of a youngster
There is confusion around Easter time, and a knife-blow
Long-term captives, and St Elmo’s Fire
When three brothers wound and kill each other.”

The author has no idea, I say this is again an unknown future event, between 2100-3797 AD.

Birth of a Visionary Pan-African Leader

“Born inside the shadows, on the very day of an eclipse
He will be sovereign in rule and goodness
He will renew his blood at the ancient urn
Restoring the golden age with bronze.”

The author says that an African leader will revert to the simplicities and certainties of the past in order to restore the future with a golden age. My take is this will be post-WWIII.

Mafia Killing I

“Lake Trasimeno will show
That the conspirators are to be found in Perugia
A despot will imitate a sage
Killing the German through the breastbone and face.”

I have no idea on this one, see the book.

Mafia Killing II

“Oaths will be taken on Lake Leman
Days will become weeks
Then months, then a year: all will default
Magistrates will curse their useless laws.”

I have no idea on this one, see the book.

Monsoon Rains

“Foreigners, far from Rome
Their great city will be damaged by rainfall
A girl from not that far away
Is taken by their leader, her old bonds still in place.”

The author says this unknown event means a Muslim girl, notable that with climate change a city in the middle east will have flooding issues.

US / Chinese Standoff

Two revolutions, thanks to the cunning scythe-bearer
Kingdoms will alter in the new century
Libra will move into its house
And both sides are well balanced."

At some point in the future, this means a balance of power post-WWIII.

US / Chinese False Dawn

"They will celebrate the unfortunate wedding
With great joy, but it will have an unhappy end
Husband and mother will scorn the new bride
With Phoebus dead, the north has an even worse fate."

This is some unknown future marriage between the north and some other kingdom, in order to arrive at some kind of bond, an ancient form of unity, a united kingdom. But it ends bad.

Crises in the Roman Catholic Church II

"On the death of the very old pope
A Roman, in the prime of life, will succeed him
It will be said that he weakens the pontificate
That he will last long, and cause acute damage."

Crises in the Roman Catholic Church IV

"The raised one will not recognize his own sceptre
The children of the great ones are disgraced
Never was there a fouler, crueler being
The black one will banish their dead spouses."

I believe this happens after the complete collapse and destruction of the vatican, and basically describes Lucifer having condemned (banished, black one = dark one) all. This is the reason it says "raised one" and "children of great ones" who lost their bible (sceptre). Or this could refer to USA's recent race war, in which the great ones are northern people, who are now mixed race and the whites are disgraced, the blacks having defeated all whites by drugs, sex, and crime, the white boys dead, and a mixed-race white and black fading to black race is the idea of this race war, to mate all white girls with black men, thereby end of whites.

Crises In the Roman Catholic Church V

"Before the battle can be joined, the great wall falls
The mighty one is dead, dead, before his time, complaining
Born imperfect: most will now swim
Near the river the ground is the color of blood."

I think this refers to the great wall of china (before wwiii), where some leader dies, and so russia and china attack one another, the leader has some kind of blemish, while china deals apparently with floods, the Yellow River is what the last quatrain speaks of. This can also mean the transport of Russians to Chinese ghost cities (the great wall falls), as a place of safety for russians in the event of a nuclear exchange with USA.

Buddhism and the Protestant Church

“Two will be besieged with burning fervor
Two full cups will not quench their thirst
The strong are finished, and an old dreamer
Will show the Genevans the way to Nira.”

What this means is WWIII is mostly a battle between NATO and the Communist alliance, where during this war, many will turn to meditation and psychiatry for relief, as noted by the Genevans (the geneva convention established rules and rights for non-combatants during times of war), showing the path to Nira (Nirvana).

England Secedes from the European Union

“First in France, and now in Romania
By sea and land to the English and Paris
Marvelous deeds by that great alliance
The violent attack will lose the northern larch.”

Again, referring to events of WWIII, not “Brexit”

Serbo-Croatian Conflict

“A barbaric conflict in the black gutter
Blood will be spilt, rocking Dalmatia
Great Ishmael will create inroads
In the trembling ranks of the Portuguese rescuers.”

This refers to terrorism in Croatia (Dalmatia). Great Ishmael refers to Islamists.

French Leadership

“The old man is mocked and unseated
By the same foreigner who bribed him
He will see the hands of his son eaten in front of him
He will betray his brother at Chartres, at Orléans and at Rouen.”

No idea..

Arab War

“The great army of the people of the cross
Will draw up in Mesopotamia
A smaller company, from a nearby river
Will find their rule inimical.”

Worldwide Epidemic

“Mabus, though dead, returns
Both man and beast suffer terribly
Then, all of a sudden, vengeance arrives
Much blood, thirst, hunger, when the comet passes.”

Mabus means “ObaMA BUSH”, and what this says is, even though America is destroyed by nuclear fallout, it looks like it says we recover, and strike vengeance of some kind, causing suffering and famine, at the timing of some comet passing (literally, a comet). I believe this would be America’s technological vengeance, basically, their cyber warfare would cause this sort of thing.

Peace Reigns over the Earth

“With the plague over, the earth shrinks
Peace will reign for a good while
People will travel through the sky, like birds, and by sea and wave
Before war once again is called for.”

What this is saying is, after world war three, in which a lot of biological weapons are used, there will be a long time of peace, before WWIV.

Consequences of England’s Secession from EU

“Children will be moved around the islands
Two out of every seven will be in despair
The land will feed those who live by it
Only the spade will unify and give hope.”

Treaty of Rome

“O great Roman one, your ruin approaches
Not by your walls, but by your blood and substance
The asper, through letters, will cause such a terrible rift
Pointed steel will damage everything as far as the english channel.”

Dangers of Embryo Replacement

“Inside the quince he will offer himself to Luna

Where he will be taken and placed in a strange land
The unripe fruits will cause great unpleasantness
Great blame, but to one, great praise."

? Again, too far out in the future ?

Great Famine

"The great famine which I sense is approaching
Will start intermittently, but gradually become universal
So great and so long will it be, that roots will be torn
From the trees, and infants from their mother's breast."

I believe the world will literally have a lot of time with food simply by the combination of world war three and also climate change. Already, we have vast creature loss within 2022-2024. In combination with the looming war and biological weapons, the lack of creature life, in my opinion, will cause a global famine, as people struggle for any food.

Nuclear Market in New Europe

"When soldiers mutter mutinously
Unsheathing steel at night against their chief
Albion's enemy will struggle furiously
To upset Rome, and seduce it from its principles."

No idea for this future event, except that it is uprisings, mutiny, like anonymous group.

Warnings of Global War

"The shining deed of the newly elected elder
Will be blown south by the great northern wind
Great halls are raised by his own sweat
Fleeing, he is killed at the bushes of Ambellon."

We don't know, again, too far out in the future

An Asteroid Strikes the Earth

"The great mountain, seven stades around
After peace, war, hunger, flood
Will roll far, destroying great swathes of country
Even antiquities, and mighty foundations."

Some asteroid nails us after wwiii

Global War I

“From the regions governed by Libra
A great war will come, enough to disturb the mountains
Both sexes will be captures, and all Byzantium
So that cries will be heard at dawn, from country to country.”

I think this refers to WWIV

Global War II

“Slicing armor is hidden in the torches
Inside Lyon, on the day of the sacred mountain
Those of Vienna will be put in the mincer
By the Latin cantons; Macon does not lie.”

More WWIV

Global War III

“The spear from the skies will complete its extinguishing
It will speak of death: a terrible execution
The proud nation will be returned to the stone in the tree
Rumors of a human monster bring first catharsis, then sacrifice.”

Again, WWIV, nukes, and some evil person.

Global War IV

“He will enter, ugly, bad, and infamous
He will tyrannize Mesopotamia
Friends will pretend that the adulterous one has a soul
The land is horrible, and black of aspect.”

Some evil leader causes WWIV

Global War V

“The islanders will face a long siege
They will defend themselves vigorously
Those outside will be assailed by hunger
It will be a far worse famine than those which preceded it.”

WWIV is accompanied by famine, as WWIII ends with great famine.

Global War Aftermath

“The cry of an extraordinary bird will be heard

Canoning through the air shafts
The cost of a bushel of wheat corn will soar so high
That man will make of man a cannibal."

Again, WWIII and WWIV ends in famine, the second time, people become cannibals.

Fortress Britain Following Global War

"By ares of fire, pitch and flame are they repulsed
Screams, cries and shouts at midnight
They are launched from inside the smashed defenses
The traitors escape through their secret passages."

Some future event (2050-4000 AD)

Civil Disobedience Begins

"Sudden joy inside sudden sadness
Will occur at Rome, of the jealously guarded favors
Mourning, cries, tears, weeping, blood, excellent joy
Opposing groups surprised and locked up."

This refers to some future Roman event where they apparently force church unity

Change of World Order

"The locked and fated eternal order of things
Will switch direction, thanks to a new order
The old Greek order will be broken,
Its citadel taken; the enemy will not be accepted."

New World Order

Climate Change due to Global War

"The blood of innocents, of widows and virgins
The great Red One commits many evils
Holy images are infused with the light of votive candles
Terrified and fearful, people will no longer dare to move."

This, I think, refers to a tyrannical Vatican rule of the world. Who knows when

Tsunami II

"Near the great river a ditch will form; the land will be eaten
The water will split into fifteen channels
The city falls; fire, blood and cries conflict

Much of it caused by the collision."

Again, some future unknown event. Wait for global news to reveal all this stuff.

Tsunami III

"The royal bird will fly over the city of the sun
Seven months earlier there will be a nocturnal augury
The Eastern wall will fall, amidst thunder and lightning
For seven unremitting days the enemy will be at the gates."

Another future unknown war event

New Leader Appears

"The great scolder, bold and shameless
Will be elected head of the army
The boldness of his contentions
Will cause the bridge to break and the city to faint with fear."

Another future thing (2050-4000 AD)

European Earthquake

"When even the trees shake mightily
And the south wind seems covered in blood
So many will try to escape
That Vienna and all Austria will shake with their passing."

Another future event regarding war

Locust Plague

"Frejus, Antibes, and the towns around Nice
Will be devastated both by land and by sea
Locusts will come on propitious winds
Kidnap, death, rape, pillage, no martial law."

Another thing way out in the future

US Earthquake

"When the sun is at twenty degrees in Taurus, a great earthquake
Will totally destroy the packed Great Theatre
Air, sky and earth will be murky and unsettled
So that even infidels will call on God and the saints to steer them."

Again, too far out in the future, and this great theater is Holywood, so yes, USA.

The Final Pope

“The king makes a statement completing the hecatomb
After having discovered its origin
A flood of marble and lead opens the tomb
Of a great Roman of the Medusan persuasion.”

The author is correct on this one. He says the last pope will be named Peter, Medusan and marble refer to making things stone as a mortal, hence hecatomb, and lead refers to alchemy from Rome, turning one thing into another. In this, all of this turning to stone in a flood of marble and lead, one considers all popes are buried in the same underground cathedral.

French Crises Prelude I

“The old demagogue, salt measure teetering
Will be urged never to release the captive
The old man, though not weak, does not wish to be maligned
By legitimate means he delivers him to his friends.”

No idea...

Cyprus Partition

“At this time Cyprus will be frustrated
In its desire for aid from the Greeks
The old will be snuffed out, both by cannon and distress
Their king will be seduced, their queen even more affronted.”

No idea/future event

Hungary in Crises

“Life and Death change the rule of Hungary
Law becomes more asper than duty
Their great city rings with cries and laments
Castor and Pollux confront each other in the lists.”

Again, future event way out there

Greek Nuclear Accident

“In the Cyclades, and in the Perinthus and Larissa
In Sparta, and all through the Peloponnese
A terrible famine, a plague of false dust
Nine months it will last, patterning everything.”

Talking about famine in the EU, and some kind of american-like dust-bowl situation

Twenty Years Since the end of Global War

“It will seem to human beings that the gods
Must have been the authors of the great war
Once, long ago, the sky was clear of weapons
Whereas now, on the left hand, there is damage still to come.”

Once again referring to WWII, WWIII, and WWIV

French Crises Prelude II

“Their joint rule won’t last long
In three years and seven months time they will go to war
The two virgins will rebel against them
The victor is later born on American soil.”

Future event, we don’t know today

Ecological Burn-Out

“Formerly inhabited lands will become unfit for human life
Cultivable fields will be divided up
Power will be given to overcautious fools
From that moment on, death and discord for the great brothers.”

This does refer to the fact of ecological damage due to human works and war.

The Middle East

“New laws will rule new lands
Towards Syria, Judea and Palestine
The great barbarian empire will decay
Before Phoebus concludes his dominance of the century.”

This states that Greek rule of this area will be eliminated following WWIII.

French Crises I

“The redolent ashes of the joyful virgin
Will darken; for a long time there will be no salt
Black marketeers, ruffians, and odious wolves
Pell-mell everywhere.”

Refer to the book here, I don’t know any of this one

French Crises II

“The learned enemy will turn about in confusion
The mighty army sickens, brought low by ambush
Both the hills of the Pyrenees and of the Apennines will be closed to him
Old containers will be discovered near the river.”

Again, future events, just keep this stuff in mind and keep seeing global news and events.

Franco-British Crises

“A horrible tumult in the islands
Soon only the warlike cabal will be heard
So great will be the predators’ insults
That a great league will form against them.”

French Crises IV

“A treaty between enemies
Is not kept: the captives are not released
The leader is captured and killed, his remains are stripped
The rest are damned for sustaining him.”

This is apparently referring to the end of WWIII.
